

In a concerted effort to diversify its economy and capitalise on the rapidly growing electric vehicle (EV) industry, Zambia has proactively negotiated with automakers to establish EV component ...

The Zambian Electric Mobility Innovation Alliance (ZEMIA) has reported a 334 percent rise in electric vehicle (EV) uptake since government scrapped customs duty on the imports in January ...

In a progressive step toward embracing electric mobility, Zambia has proposed removing customs duties on electric vehicles (EVs) and charging infrastructure. This proposal aligns with the ...

That's one barrier taken care off. The next barrier to adoption was the availability of both new and used electric vehicles on the Zambian market.

By becoming a member of ZEMIA, individuals and organizations can access a wide range of valuable resources and opportunities within the electric vehicle (EV) community. Each with a specific focus ...

The Ministry of Green Economy and Environment has unveiled its first Electric Vehicle, marking a major step in Zambia's transition, towards a sustainable and low emission economy.

Electric cars are becoming more common in Zambia, with government incentives, affordable charging, and expanded infrastructure driving demand. As of July 2025, EV registrations ...

After Zambia removed customs duties on electric vehicle imports in January 2024, EV adoption started to accelerate sharply. Registered electric vehicles grew by about 334 % from 62 in ...

With improved charging infrastructure, government incentives like tax exemptions, and platforms like EV24.africa, Zambians can now access a wide range of electric car models, from ...

Zambia electric vehicles

Web: <https://falconengineering.co.za>

